Mystery

Mystery books are most often fiction books. These books often revolve around a crime of some sort.

EX:
Sherlock Holmes
Adventure

An adventure book is most commonly involved with some type of danger.

Ex:
Beowulf
Narnia
Biography

A biography is a non-fiction book about the life of someone, recording true events.

EX:
No official Justin Beiber
Science Fiction

A Science fiction book is a fictional story about something science related or technology related that could be plausible.

Ex: Frankenstein
Poetry is imaginative and emotional response with words through writing and meaning.

Ex:
Shakespeare's sonnets
Autobiography

An autobiography is a non-fiction writing, wherein the story is about the author.

EX:
The Diary of Anne Frank
Fantasy

A fantasy is a fictional story that commonly uses supernatural or magic.

Ex:
Harry Potter
Lord of the Rings Trilogy
Realistic Fiction

Realistic fiction commonly revolves around an event that is true but the story is fabricated. It commonly is based on real-world events.

EX:
Holes
Historical Fiction

Historical fiction is based on an historical event but the story is fictional.

Ex:
All quiet on the western front